

Kingston upon Thames Archaeological Society – 50th Anniversary Conference

Saturday, 20th July
Surbiton Library Hall
(Ewell Road, KT6 6AG)

9:30 am to 4:00 pm

£10 (members, in advance)

£12 (non-members, in advance)

£15 on the door

includes light buffet
lunch, coffee and tea

Kingston upon Thames Archaeological Society (KUTAS)

50th Anniversary Conference

Saturday, 20th July 2019 – 9:30 am to 4 pm

Surbiton Library Hall, Ewell Road, Surbiton, KT6 6AG

Cost in advance: £10 (members), £12 (non-members); £15 on the door
(includes morning coffee, light buffet lunch and afternoon tea)

On July 20th, 2019 the Kingston upon Thames Archaeological Society (KUTAS) will be celebrating its 50th anniversary with an all-day conference, including various speakers with experience of Kingston's archaeology.

Speakers will be Jon Cotton, David Field, Duncan Hawkins, Sue & John Janaway, Steve Nelson and Ian West.

In order to book, please complete the reply slip below and send it with a cheque made payable to KUTAS to Freda Banks at 18 Richmond Court, 2 Queens Road, Kingston upon Thames, Surrey, KT2 7ST by Monday, 8th July 2019. You should also include either a stamped addressed envelope or an email address, so that your booking can be acknowledged.

Kingston upon Thames Archaeological Society (KUTAS)

50th Anniversary Conference

Saturday, 20th July 2019 – 9:30 am to 4 pm

Name(s): _____

Email address: _____

Cheques should be made payable to KUTAS. Please send this reply slip, and the cheque, to Freda Banks at 18 Richmond Court, 2 Queens Road, Kingston upon Thames, Surrey, KT2 7ST. You should also include either a stamped addressed envelope or an email address, so that your booking can be acknowledged.

Please return by Monday, 8th July 2019.